ARTICLE I NAME AND LOCATION

This organization will be known as the Oxnard Gem And Mineral Society, hereinafter referred to as "OGMS." OGMS is located in Oxnard, Ventura County, California.

ARTICLE II MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 General Membership

Membership in OGMS is for those persons who are actively interested in Minerals, Rocks, Fossils and/or Lapidary and Jewelry Arts.

- A. Any person making application for membership, who fulfills the requirements as set forth herein, and who has paid the current membership fee, shall become an active member upon approval of a quorum of the Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as "the Board").
- B. The Board retains the right to deny approval of a membership application. The application for membership in this society may be denied if the applicant's behavior while a member of another California Federation of Mineralogical Societies (CFMS) or American Federation of Mineralogical Societies (AFMS) affiliated club or society was detrimental to the purposes or actions of that club or society or was cause for their resignation or expulsion.
- C. Persons who were members of OGMS on or before March 6, 1961, shall be regarded as Charter members.

Section 2 Membership Dues

- A. Annual dues are due January 1st of each year, except when membership has been approved in October or later, whereupon the dues paid will extend through the following year. To avoid a lapse in membership, annual dues must be paid not later than the general meeting in March.
- B. Classifications for members are: Adults (aged 18 and over), Pebble Pups (ages 6 to 11 years), and Juniors (ages 12 to 17 years). Each non-adult member must have an adult sponsor with current paid membership.

Section 3 Honorary Membership

Honorary membership may be bestowed upon persons rendering a service or courtesy to the benefit of OGMS upon approval of a quorum of the Board. Length of membership and/or extension is to be determined by a quorum of the Board. Honorary members are not voting members.

Section 4 Termination of Membership

Members may have their membership terminated by the Board for the following reasons:

- A. Willful violation of OGMS By-Laws, and/or Operating Regulations.

OXNARD GEM AND MINERAL SOCIETY
AMENDED BY-LAWS

- B. Willful promotion of friction among OGMS members.
- C. Any act determined to be a violation of duties of office, fiduciary duties, or law.
- D. Excessive use of intoxicating substances during official functions.
- E. Use of firearms (except for personal protection) or explosives while on field trips.

ARTICLE III OGMS ASSETS

Section 1 Receipt of Donated Assets of Nominal Value

- A. If a member or guest brings an item or items to a meeting to be donated to OGMS, any member attending should assist the donor in finding the appropriate Board member to accept the donation. The accepting Board member shall accept and acknowledge the donation and report the donation at the next Board meeting for recording in the Board meeting minutes.
- B. If a member is approached by a donor outside of a meeting to donate a small number of items or items of nominal value, the member may accept and acknowledge the donation then direct the donation to the appropriate Board member for use by OGMS. The donation shall be reported at the next Board meeting for recording in the Board meeting minutes.

Section 2 Receipt of Larger Donated Assets

- A. Any member or Board member receiving communication regarding a larger potential donation (e.g., estate assets) shall forward the communication to the Board, and the communication shall be documented in the minutes of the next Board meeting. Communication may be forwarded via email or other appropriate means.
- B. At the next Board meeting, whether regular or emergency, the Board shall determine the appropriateness of the donation for the benefit of OGMS. When determined appropriate, a team of two or more OGMS members will be identified and assigned to contact the donor or donor's family to inventory, photograph, and take possession of the donated items for OGMS.
- C. The donor or donor's family may designate another person to attend the inventory event; however, that person may not participate in the inventory.
- D. No other OGMS member may be involved in the donation event without prior Board authorization.
- E. The Board shall notify the donor family, person, or party in writing (email being acceptable), identifying the OGMS representatives who will attend the donation event. If requested, a copy of the inventory list may be provided to the donor or donor's family, in addition to a letter of thanks, and a donation receipt.
